

Wavelengths Route Expansion

Laurel, MT to Cheyenne, WY to Denver, CO

Zayo's new route Montana to Colorado traverses from Laurel, MT to Cheyenne, WY to Henderson, CO and then to Denver, CO to provide another diverse route option on our 100G long-haul wavelengths network. The route provides customers in the Midwest and West access to the growing hub of data centers located in Cheyenne and offers a diverse path from Chicago to Denver or Seattle to Denver through Cheyenne.

Zayo is continually expanding its fiber network to offer customers fast, high-bandwidth capacity connections to key cities across the globe. Our unique expertise and track record of successful implementation ensures you have a reliable partner for your networking and infrastructure needs.

Route Overview

Next Generation High-Capacity Wavelength Service

- 1G, 2.5G, 10G, 40G & 100G, OTU2, OTU4

Technical Information

- 690 Route Miles
- All underground

Latency

- 12.2 ms

POPs

- Laurel (711 Lindy Ln)
- Cheyenne (340 Progress Circle)
- Henderson (10475 E 112th Ave)

